

A Leader for Lauder

The Lauder Javne School in Budapest calls for applications and nominations for Head of School, to be appointed by early 2025, and to assume responsibility for the school year 2025-2026.

Who are you?

- ▶ You are a leader with outstanding people skills, a strong commitment to Jewish continuity, and a creative approach to, and understanding of, pedagogy;
- ▶ You are visionary, engaging and enthusiastic;
- ▶ You are competent, Judicious and empathetic;
- ▶ You are an experienced manager, having led teams in an educational institution or organization, with a proven track record in pedagogic leadership or financial management or both;
- ▶ You are familiar with, and have an evidenced interest in, Jewish education, and are excited about contributing to the future of Jewish life in Budapest;
- ▶ You are a fluent Hungarian and competent English speaker.

Who are we?

- ▶ The Lauder Javne School is an established, highly successful, outstanding institution comprising primary, middle and high schools as well as a kindergarten, and enrolling close to 900 pupils;
- ▶ We are renowned for creative, progressive pedagogy and academic achievement;
- ▶ We are the largest Jewish school in central Europe, and key to the future of Jewish life in Budapest;
- ▶ We are a competently managed, solidly resourced institution, with active governance, engaged staff, and a supportive community of parents and alumni.

What is the process and terms?

The new Head of School will be appointed in early 2025 and will work in parallel with her/his predecessor for up to six months.

Applications and nominations will be reviewed by the Board of the School. Invitations to interview will be issued on a rolling basis. Compensation will be commensurate with experience

If you are interested, send us your application (CV and motivation letter) in English. For more information, or to submit an application or nomination, please contact the Board of the School at kuratorium@lauder.hu.